Wilder's S. S. Co. is in receipt of the following, dated Hilo, May: "Another landslide covered up the fire in the crater, but yesterday we had a series of six earthquakes, two of them very heavy. One about noon, a very heavy one at 3:20 p. m., one as heavy at 4:12 p. m., and slight ones at 6:40, 10:38 and 11:05 p. m. The heavy ones loosened up the crater again and now there are two cones in very active eruption."

The Honolulu Photo Supply Co. calls attention to the No. 4 Secret Focus Kodak, a camera which while embodying ideas absolutely new in camera construction conserves all the old kodak simplicity. A feature which will commend this camera to ambitious amateurs who wish to do their best work with film, is the double extension bed with which this camera is equipped. This allows the operator to work to within twenty-two inches of the subject when focusing the image up the subject when focusing the image on the ground glass—insuring perfect accuracy and sharpness.

BIG APPROPRIATIONS FOR SCHOOL HOUSES

At the afternoon session of the Senate yesterday the loan bill was taken up for second reading, the report of the special committee on the bill being the basis worked on.

It was moved to raise the Hilo government building item from $12,000 to $50,000. Lost. North Kona got $8000 for a courthouse and jail, and Maui and Kauai $25,000 each for public buildings. The item of $300,000 for extension of the Honolulu wharf system passed as in the bill.

The item of educational buildings in Oahu caused a very long discussion and was finally passed at $28,000.

Brown moved to insert an item of $20,000 for the Hilo high school. Carried.

Educational buildings on Hawaii were another source of trouble and after much wrangling passed at $22,000.

The Maui educational buildings passed at $13,000 without a murmur. The Kauai buildings found a warm defender in Randall, who wanted the item raised from $9000 to $28,350. This caused violent opposition from Dickey, who was against spending any money for teachers' cottages. Achi, and Dowsett, who said if the item passed he would move to reconsider the item of Maui and Hawaii. Hewitt supported Randall. Randall's motion carried.

Dickey moved to reconsider the Maui item. Carried. He then moved to raise it to $20,000.

Achi moved to reconsider the Oahu item. Carried. He then moved to make it $37,800. McCallless wanted $56,000. Dickey proposed $30,000. The item passed at $30,000.

Kalama moved to insert an item of $15,000 for a water pipe from Waikolu to Kalaupapa. Lost.

Brown moved to insert an item of $1000 for water pipe at Laupahoehoe. Lost.

The Honolulu water works item was also a bone of contention.

THE CONGRESS OF SONG

This afternoon will see the great musical competition between Kaahumanu, Kailua and Royal schools at the Boys' Field on Liliha street, commencing at 4 o'clock. The successful school wins the handsome Newcomb trophy and will retain same for a year. At present the banner is held by Kaahumanu School.

Seven hundred voices constitute the chorus which will be directed by Mrs. Anna B. Tucker, who so ably filled this position at the festival last year.

The decision will be rendered by nine judges on Monday.

Mrs. Ida Gray Scott, the prima donna soprano, will sing solos and the Government band will accompany the choruses.

Only ten cents will be charged for admission to the field, a small additional fee being levied for chairs.
